BY J. L. PENNINGTON.

Champ Ferguson's Full Confession.

The Nashville Dispatch furnishes the following as the full confession of Champ Ferguson. He commenced his statement with

THE KILLING OF REUBEN WOOD.

The testimony in this case was, with very few exceptions, false. Reuben Wood and I were always good friends before the war, but after that he was connected with the same company in which my brother Jim was operating. I knew that he intended killing me if he ever got a chance. They both hunted me down, and drove me fairly to desperation. On the day that he was killed, we met him in the road, and he commenced on me, using the most abusive language. I knew his disposition toward me, and believed he intended to shoot me. The touching story about his piteous appeals to me—that he had nursed me when a babe, and tossed me on his knee—are false, and were gotton up expressly to create sympathy, and set me forth as a heartless wretch. If I had not shot Reuben Wood, I would not likely have been here, for he would have shot me. I never expressed a regret for committing the act, and never will. He was in open war against me.

THE KILLING OF FROGG.

The case of Frogg is another in which I am falsely placed. The circumstance are well known to many in that neighborhood. He was with the Home Guards, and instigated my arrest while I was peaceably pursuing my avocation as a farmer. Not satisfied with this, he laid in wait on the highways to kill me. He even went so far as to make his threats to the neighbors that he intended to kill me. On the day that I passed down the road leading to Frogg's house, Mrs. Pleasant Beatty called to me, and warned me that Frogg was watching for an opportunity to kill me. I had been cautioned by a number of persons. There were two men with me at the time Mrs. Beatty spoke to us, and I told the boys that I would settle the matter by going direct to Frogg's house and killing him. His wife was at the door pealing apples. I dismounted and went in. He was lying in bed, and on see me, pulled the cover over his face. I then shot him twice. His wife ran away, and as I passed out I met Miss Russel, who lives near there. She asked me what was the matter? I told her that Frogg was killed, and that she had better go in and look after him. No words whatever were passed between Frogg and myself. I consider myself justified in killing him.

THE SALTSVILLE MASSACRE,

as it has been termed, was no work of mine. I was not in the fight, and did not kill any negroes as charged. I acknowledge, however, that I killed Lieut. Smith in Emory and Henry hospital. I had a motive in committing the act. He captured a number of my men at different times, and always killed the last one of them. I was instigated to kill him, but I will not say by whom, as I do not wish to criminate my friends. Smith belonged to the 13th Kentucky, and operated around Burksville I will say this much—he never insulted my wife or daughter, as reported. He was a relative of my first wife, and always treated my family with respect. He is the only man I killed at or near Saltsville, and I am not sorry for killing him.

ESQUIRE ZACHERY.

I suppose that I am responsible for the killing of Esquire Zachery, but I was not the man who shot him. I shot at him, but one of my men fired the ball that killed him. He was in command of a company of bushwhackers, and was seeking my life.—We went to his house for the purpose of killing him, in order to save my own life. He was a clever man before the war, but got over it soon after the war broke out, and arrayed himself in deadly hostility to his old friends and neighbors.

KILLING OF DR. M'GLOSSON.

I am entirely ignorant of such a man as Dr. McGlosson, and never heard of him until the charges were read to me. He was no doubt in a fight way up the river, in which several were killed on both sides. I recollect of chasing a man to the verge of a bluff, and he ran to a fence. As he was getting over it I shot him. He might have been Dr. McGlosson, but I hardly think so, for they say the Doctor was killed several miles from the creek. I know that he was never captured by me or any of my men. The story of my taking him out and telling him to run for his life and then shooting him, is a lie manufactured of whole cloth. He never fell into my hands, and I am innocent if he was killed in the fight, as he no doubt was. I am charged with killing many persons, who fell in battle, and a good many killed by other commands are laid at my door.

FOUNT ZACHERY.

I confess that I shot the lad Fount Zachery, and stabbed him after he fell to the ground. We were out on a scout, and expected a fight that night. Jim McHenry was in command, and had given us orders to shoot down any person who might be seen with guns. As we neared a creek, the lad emerged from a thicket with a gun on his shoulder. I shot him on sight in obedience to orders.

THE SLAUGHTER OF THE TWELVE SOLDIERS.

I am charged with killing twelve soldiers at Saltsville. I am innocent of the charge. I know they were killed by Hughes' and Bledsoe's commands, and they were fairly killed in battle. There were thirty instead of twelve that fell on that day, and it was a regular fight.

JOSEPH STOVER AND OTHERS.

I killed Joseph Stover after he had shot at me twice. He was taking a third aim when I shot him in the mouth, and Fount Frost shot him in the side at the same time. William Johnson was run over a cliff and one of the boys shot him. I shot and killed Pierce, as he was running, with a double-barreled shot gun. They were all Home Guards, and seeking our lives.

ALEXANDER HOUGH.

I am innocent of killing Alexander Hough. He was a cousin to my mother, and I always liked him. I protested against his being killed, and guarded him myself in the rear, until he broke and run, when one of Bledsoe's men shot and killed him.

ELISHA KOGIER.

I killed Elisha Kogier, and done a good trick when I did it. He watched my house day and night, and sometimes until he was nearly frozen, to get a chance to kill me. He was a treacherous dog, and richly merited his fate. A number of very affecting stories are told in connection with his death.

ELAM RUDDLESTON.

I did not kill Elam. I was along, however. I think Ab. Hildreth shot him. I know that Elam shot at me, and the ball grased my clothes.

PETER ZACHERY AND OTHERS.

I killed Peter Zachery after one of the most desperate struggles that I ever had in my life. We fell to the floor, and he kept shooting, while I would knock the pistol aside. I finally got out my knife and stabbed him a few times, killing him. There were several in the house and we had ordered them to surrender. Allen Zachery was killed by one of the boys. John Williams was shot by Ben Batton, and David Delk was shot by another of our boys, all at the same time.

JOHN CRAWFORD.

I killed Addy Williams and a negro man in the mountains. I shot and stabbed them. They were executing after my command, and they found the head of it.

BOSWELL TABER.

I killed Boswell Taber as a bushwhacker. He had killed three of my men a few days previous. He was in front of his house when I shot him. He ought to have been killed sooner.

DUVAL AND HURT.

I shot at Duval and Hurt, but did not kill either of them. I don't know who killed them. Hurt shot through my coat and into my saddle.

I say, before my God, that the statements I have made comprises all the killing in which I have figured, and I have told the whole truth in every case. I give them freely and without reservation.

I told my lawyers, and you will recollect of my telling you, that that court was bound to convict me. I was not fooled on that. I think the Judge Advocate run things entirely too far. My counsel did well, but it was useless, for every point of law in my favor was overruled; and they intimidated. But I am about as well reconciled to my fate as any man could possibly be.

Mendacious Despatches.

The most disgusting features of radical abolition character have been left for development to a period in which an assimilated peace exists. While generosity and conservatism have distinguished the veterans of the North and South, Union and former dis-union men, the skulkers and bomb-proof wretches of the North have studiously attempted to libel the South, and while promoting the punishment of Wirz and others, indite the most arrant falsehoods to palliate the outrages perpetrated by their own leaders. The most recent piece of mendacity we have to notice is the associated press summary of news, in which the annexed passage occurred:

"Lieutenant-Colonel Von Borcke, late Adjutant General of cavalry, writes to the Times a statement that the documents found on the person of Colonel Dahlgren after he was killed were forgeries."

Now the following is the letter of Colonel Von Borcke thus described:

To the Editor of the Times:

Sir:—In answer to a letter of Mr. Benjamin, the former Confederate Secretary of State, as to the treatment of Federal prisoners, H. A Wise, U. S. Navy, accuses the Confederate authorities of having forged and falsely published papers found on the body of Colonel Ulric Dahlgren. Having, besides my convictions that neither Mr. Davis or Mr. Benjamin could ever have committed so base an action, the positive knowledge of their perfect innocence in this matter, I regard it as my duty and a proud privilege to appear publicly for their defence, and to declare the accusation untrue and unjust. Disabled by wounds, I found myself in Richmond at the time of the Dahlgren raid, and was the very morning after Colonel Dahlgren's death in company with General Fitz Lee, when, about 10 A. M., Lieutenant Pollard, of the 9th Virginia cavalry, who, with a party of his own and volunteers of several other regiments, had opposed Colonel Dahlgren's movement, arrived from the fight and entered the General's room, making the following report:

"Knowing of Colonel Dahlgren's approach with far superior numbers to my own, I put my men in ambush, awaiting the enemy. Colonel Dahlgren was riding a short distance ahead of his men. He had gotten quite near to us, when I called out to him to surrender. Instead of doing so, the Colonel turned to his command, giving the order to charge, whereupon my men fired a volley, by which the Colonel was instantly killed, pierced by several bullets, as nearly all the shots had been aimed at his person. The soldiers under his command turned to rapid flight. On the Colonel's dead body I found a memorandum book and some loose orders and papers, the contents of which I regarded as important enough to deliver them in person."

The Lieutenant then handed Fits Lee the documents in question, the contents of which were read by both of us with feelings of the greatest indignation, and half an hour afterwards carried by the General personally to President Davis.

The papers afterwards published by the Confederate authorities are identical with those which I read a few hours after they had been taken from Dahlgren's body, and which documents, under the circumstances, must be supposed to have been written by the Colonel's own hand.

General Fits Lee, who is still alive in Virginia, will, if desired, fully corroborate the above statement.

Your obedient servant,
HEROS VON BORCKE,
Lieutenant-Colonel and late Adjutant-General of the Cavalry of the Army of Virginia.

It will be seen that this telegraphic agent deliberately and willfully lied. That is just the English of it.

DON'T LIKE IT.—The Boston Commonwealth (Sumner's organ) is so much disappointed at the result of the election in Connecticut, that it gives utterance to the following:

They used to tell of a vedler state,
Where the souls were small and the wits were great.
The spice-merchants there increased their hoard,
Not as board of trade, but by trade of board.
But those "nutmegs" now have lost their meanness,
And the "horn-gun-flints" have lost their greenness,
And the Yankees there have lost their keenness.
For the state is now meaner,
And greener,
And not a bit keener,
Than a man who has been by a robber attacked,
And whipped him with powder and bullets in fact,
And then caved—and bit his own nose off because it was bleeded!

—Edward Oakesmith, the notorious fitter-out of slaves from the Connecticut and Rhode Island ports, who made his escape from justice in Massachusetts to Cuba, died there last August of yellow fever.

—Strong efforts are being made to induce the President to release Ex-Senator David L. Yulee, of Florida, from Fort Pulaski, where he is now confined.

—General Wade Hampton, though voted for in the late election for Governor of South Carolina, had declined being a candidate.

—In the war there were eight hundred houses in Petersburg struck by shells thrown by the United States troops. The gas house was struck sixty-three times.

—A New York letter says John Mitchel will resume his place on the News, and make Fenianism his speciality.

—The Catholics are excited about the Fenians. The Government employs a great number of spies watching them.

THE DAILY PROGRESS.

VOL. VI. RALEIGH, MONDAY, OCT. 30, 1865. NO. 297.

THE CITY.

☞ Persons in city and country are requested, at all times, to furnish us verbal or written information of any events of public interest which may transpire in their neighborhoods, or of which they may have knowledge.

BIBLICAL RECORDER.—This weekly religious paper, another Raleigh institution, has been revived after some months suspension and we welcome it as one of the most opportune things for the times. The editor and proprietor, Rev. James D. Huffham, wields a ready and graceful, as well as able pen, and if sustained as the enterprise deserves to be, he will contribute much towards promoting healthful morality apart from any denominational considerations. As a family visitor it will be in place in every household, because besides the religious element, there is an interesting variety of matter news and otherwise. One copy 12 months $4; six months $2.50—advertising rates liberal.

It is but just to say that it has seldom been our pleasure to examine a paper the typographical arrangement of which pleased us better.

OUR CITY.—The correspondent of "The Nation" newspaper, printed in New York, thus gives his impressions of our city:

"Raleigh is a less considerable city than I had supposed, and the business part of it is neither large nor handsome; but its broad avenues, abundant trees, gentle declivities, and rather elegant private residences, make it the prettiest Southern town, and with the most external evidence of taste and refinement, that I have yet seen. Its name of the 'city of oaks' must have been given it, I should say, by some approaching it from the pine lands to the southward, for the number of those trees is not remarkable. The first days of October here are very enjoyable, being hazy and cool without frosts, and the moonlit nights are even finer than the days. But the air is heavy and motionless, and cannot expand the chest; it brings with it a faint suggestion of decaying vegetation, and one begins to think of Carolinian slow fevers and agues."

This is a tolerably clever picture of the city in most respects, but we are not aware that this section is particularly favorable to chills and fevers. On the contrary, we claim that, except in the more mountainous regions, no geographical division of North Carolina is more healthy than our own.

PEDLARS.—On the sly, a posture which younglings say gives zest to kissing, a number of pedlars are vending wares around town without authority of law. They offer pinch-back jewelry to freedmen upon the gold basis and otherwise swindle them. They ought to be pointed out to the police for arrest and punishment, for they pursue their avocation in most instances without complying either with our local or the national regulation.

TO BE SUCCESSFUL—we take it for granted—is the wish of every candidate in the present campaign. They must therefore supply the ammunition promptly to the scouts and we inform them that election tickets, in any quantity, from one to fifty thousand, can be printed at this office on the shortest possible notice. Price, one dollar per thousand.

Circulars, book work and all other jobbing done with dispatch.

PERSONAL.—Brevet-Brigadier General G. F. Granger, for a long time the popular post commandant of Raleigh, arrived in town Saturday night and is stopping at the Exchange Hotel. He has, during his trip North, been seduced from the straight and narrow paths of bachelorhood and is no longer a single man. His wife is with him.

THE CITY.—Yesterday, notwithstanding the fact that the police were extraordinarily vigilant, they found no case for prosecution. Since the establishment of our police we have heard of but very few riots, and now, with half a dozen lying in striking distance, the thieves of the city hardly ever show themselves. So much for proper municipal regulations.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.—Chas. Holoman, an engineer on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, met with his death, on Friday last, by the explosion of the engine. He was a gentleman universally beloved, without an enemy; a Virginian by birth, a native of Isle of Wight county, and generally regarded as one of nature's noblemen.

CHAS. H. CUTHBERT, once of the house of Pittman & Cuthbert, is now going it alone in the Cockade city. Among the many business men in Petersburg, we know of no one who is more worthy of confidence than Mr. C. He has had large experience, and enjoys high reputation for promptness and energy. See advertisement.

AUCTION.—Those in want of groceries and other things essential to housekeeping, should not fail to be present at the auction sale of B. P. Williamson & Co., to-morrow. It offers a rare chance to those who wish to buy advantageously, particularly if they are about to commit matrimony.

DIRECT TAXES.—Judge Shipp will keep his office open in the supreme court room at the capitol for about ten days longer. Those who have not paid up should do so at once and thus save money. Failing in this, they must expect to reap the penalties provided by law.

A. & N. C. R. R.—In Saturday's paper it was announced that the military had abandoned this road, the company assuming the management. It may be of interest to say that a meeting of the Board of Directors will be held in Goldsboro' on Wednesday next, the 1st of November.

PRESENT-HOLDERS—the fortunate men among us—are invited to the Mayor's office this morning. Walk up like brave souls and show your lists of goods and chattels.

One of the most important decisions ever pronounced by our highest State tribunals has just been delivered by the Court of Appeals. It affirms the taxability of the shares of the new National Banks, and thus adds a hundred millions to the taxable property of the State.—[N. Y. Paper.

"Every dollar of the debt created to aid the rebellion against the United States should be repudiated finally and forever.—ANDREW JOHNSON TO GOV. HOLDEN.

The Commander of the Shenandoah.

Lieutenant James J. Waddell, who commands the Shenandoah, is a native of Pittsboro', Chatham county, N. C. and entered the United States naval service at Portsmouth, Va., on the receiving ship Pennsylvania, in 1841. A few months after, he was shot in the hip in a duel with another midshipman. After fifteen years service afloat he was made Assistant Professor of Navigation, etc., at the Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md. In 1859 he was ordered to the East India squadron, and in 1861, when the war broke out, mailed his resignation from St. Helena.—In December of the same year he reached Annapolis, where he was married, and also received notification of having been dismissed from the navy.—In February, 1862, he ran the blockade to Richmond, and was assigned to duty at Drewry's Bluff, participating in the memorable engagement with the iron-clads there. The succeeding year he was assigned to command one of the rafts for the defence of Charleston harbor, and in 1864 took command of the Shenandoah.

There is said to be a race of mankind, yclept the Yezides, who are acknowledged worshippers of the Devil. The Philadelphia Evening Bulletin says that there is now sitting in that city a Spiritual Convention, having for one of its features a Board of Education, and that one of the female members of the Board made the following prayer to Lucifer, in Lyceum Hall, Boston, 1860 or 1861:

"Oh Lucifer, thou son of the morning, who fell from thy high estate, and whom mortals are prone to call the embodiment of evil, we lift up our voices unto thee. We know thou canst not harm us unless by the will of the Almighty, of whom thou are a part and portion, and in whose economy thou playest thy part; and we cannot presume to sit in judgment over Deity. From the depths of thine infamy stream forth divine truths. Why should we turn from thee? Does not the same inspiration rule us all? Is one in God's sight better than another? We know thou art yet to come up in his expanded creation, purified by the influence of God's love—for his love is not yet perfected while one of his children writhes in misery. So, oh Lucifer, do we come up and stand before the throne of the Ancient of Days, hand in hand with thee. As thou hast been the star of the morning, thou wilt again become an angel of light. Oh, Satan, we will subdue thee with our love, and thou wilt yet kneel humbly with us at the throne of God."

If Satan is not subdued by that vestal's love, he must be a most incorrigible devil. The Bulletin says it does not know whether the original doctrines here promulgated have been adopted by this young lady's association in the Spiritual Convention. The least they can do is to elect the old gentleman an honorary member of that body, and get him to serve on the Board of Education.

Mr. J. D. DeBow, the former eminent statistical champion of slavery, has written a letter advocating the "social, physical and political advancement" of the freedmen. He also declares that the South "must throw her immense uncultivated domain into the market at a low price; reduce the quantity of land held by individual proprietors, and resort to intelligent and vigorous measures, at the earliest moment, to induce an influx of population and capital from abroad."

THEY WILL REWARD HIM.—The Atlanta Intelligencer has the following:

President Johnson is reported to have spoken as follows to a gentleman to whom he had granted an interview:

"The Monroe Doctrine is all right. I believe in it. But there are greater principles at stake than those involved in that question. When the Union is restored it will be time for talking about foreign aggressions on this continent. I shall do all I can to make the Southern people happy, and to palliate the bitterness of their defeat."

SENATOR DOOLITTLE ON THE CHASE RADICALS.—Senator Doolittle, of Wisconsin, a prominent Republican Senator, in a late letter, thus hits off the Chase and Sumner radicals who are now opposing the President's policy. He says:

"Some of the foremost in denouncing Mr. Johnson's policy intend to make uncompromising war upon his administration in order to build up a new party for the next Presidential contest.

Yours, respectfully, J. R. DOOLITTLE.

AN ORDINANCE

Providing for the election of the members of the General Assembly to be convened on the fourth Monday of November, 1865, and for electing Representatives in Congress, and Governor of the State.

Be it ordained by the delegates of the people of the State of North Carolina, in convention assembled, and it is hereby ordained by authority of the same, That a General Assembly of the State shall be convened on the fourth Monday of November, 1865, the members whereof shall hold their places till the next election of such members, which shall be held on the first Thursday of August, 1866

Be it further ordained, That the Provisional Governor is hereby authorized and requested to issue forthwith to the sheriff of each county a writ directing that an election be held for the senators and members of the House of Commons of such General Assembly, on the second Thursday of November next, under the rules, regulations and provisions of chapter 52 of the revised Code.

Be it further ordained, That immediately on the receipt of the writ, each sheriff shall summon the justices of the peace of the Courts of Pleas and Quarter Sessions to assemble at the court house on a day appointed by him, which shall be as early as practicable, and they, or so many as may assemble, shall appoint inspectors for each place of election, who shall be forthwith notified of their appointment by the sheriff, and they shall conduct the elections and make return of the polls in the manner prescribed in said chapter.

Be it further ordained, That each member and voter shall be qualified according to the now existing constitution of the State: Provided, however, That no one shall be eligible to a seat or be capable of voting, who being free in all respects, shall not before the twenty-ninth day of May, eighteen hundred and sixty-five, either have voluntarily taken and subscribed the oath of amnesty prescribed in the proclamation of President Lincoln, with the purpose to suppress the insurrection and restore the authority of the United States, and thenceforward shall have observed the same, or shall not have taken and subscribed the oath of amnesty prescribed in the proclamation of President Johnson, bearing date twenty-ninth day of May, eighteen hundred and sixty-five, and who, moreover, shall not in either case be of those who are excepted from the amnesty granted by any of the said proclamations, unless pardoned: But, provided also, That all persons who may have preferred petitions for pardon shall be deemed to have been pardoned, if the fact of being pardoned shall be announced by the Governor, although the pardon may not have been received: And provided also, that the payment of a public tax shall not be required as a qualification of the voter in the elections in November next.

Be it further ordained, That for the purpose of ascertaining the qualifications of persons proposing to vote, the inspectors may, and it shall be their duty, whenever the vote may be challenged, or they shall have cause to suspect that he is not duly qualified, examine him and others on oath touching the question.

Be it further ordained, That at the same time and place elections shall be held for seven representatives in the Congress of the United States, in pursuance of chapter sixty-nine of the revised Code, which shall be conducted under the rules and regulations therein prescribed for such elections, and the voters in said elections shall be such only as shall be qualified to vote for members of the House of Commons, and the Provisional Governor shall give the certificate required by the ninth section of said chapter.

Be it further ordained, That at the same time and place, an election shall be held for a Governor of the State, under the same rules and regulations as prescribed in chapter fifty-three of the revised Code, and the persons qualified to vote for members of the House of Commons under the ordinance, shall be qualified to vote for Governor.

Be it further ordained, That no person shall be eligible as Governor unless he shall be qualified according to the Constitution of the State, and also shall be capable under the provisions of this ordinance of voting for members of the General Assembly.

Be it further ordained, That the Governor thus elected shall take his seat so soon as the authority of the Provisional Governor shall cease, either before the first day of January, eighteen hundred and sixty-six, or afterwards, before the first day of January, eighteen hundred and sixty-seven.

Be it further ordained, That the Governor thus elected shall continue in office till the first day of January, eighteen hundred and sixty-seven.

Be it further ordained, That it shall be in the power of the General Assembly to modify so much of this ordinance as relates to the provisions for electing a Governor and his term of office.

BURNING OF THE MUSEUM!
LETTER FROM MR. P. T. BARNUM!
NEW YORK, July 14, 1865.

Messrs. Herring & Co.:

GENTLEMEN—Though the destruction of the American Museum has proved a serious loss to myself and the public, I am happy to verify the old adage that "It's an ill wind that blows nobody good," and, consequently, congratulate you that your well-known safes have again demonstrated their superior fire-proof qualities in an ordeal of unusual severity.

The safe you made for me some time ago was in the office of the Museum, on the second floor, back part of the building, and in the hottest of the fire.

After seventy-four hours of trial it was found among the debris, and, on opening it this day has yielded up its contents in very good order—books, papers, policies of insurance, bank bills, all in condition for immediate use, and a noble commentary on the trustworthiness of Herring's Fire-Proof Safes.

Truly yours,
P. T. BARNUM.

MEAL! MEAL! MEAL!—300 bushels Meal, for sale by
P. F. WILLIAMSON & CO.

TO THE VOTERS OF WAKE COUNTY.—Having offered myself as a candidate for the office of Clerk of the Superior Court of Wake county, at the ensuing election, I take this method to see you all before the election, and will meet you at all the places appointed for said election. I go for David A. Winston for Governor, for Superior Court Clerk, and myself humble, for Register of Deeds, and Book Keeper. I am your obedient servant,

Hoping you will vote for me,
[oct27-3td] DAVID J. WHITAKER.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE FOURTH CONGRESSIONAL District, composed of the counties of Orange, Chatham, Granville, Warren, Franklin, Nash, Halifax and Wake:

FELLOW-CITIZENS—I hereby announce myself a candidate to represent you in the next Congress of the United States. The short time between this and the day of election precludes the possibility of a canvass. Indeed, in the present condition of the country, a heated political campaign should be deprecated by all. The particular measures that will claim the attention of the coming Congress cannot now with certainty be known. Hence, all speculations and promises pledges are, for the most part, vain and unnecessary. There is a question, however, which seems to be paramount, to some extent, the minds of the people, both North and South, but which properly comes within the province of the State Legislature. I allude to negro suffrage, to which I am utterly opposed. I am in favor, as no doubt all of us are, of the speedy restoration of civil law in the State.

If I am honored, fellow-citizens, by your suffrages with a seat in Congress, I can only promise you to guard zealously your best interests—to devote what ability I may possess to the advocacy and preservation of all your rights—and to uphold and maintain, to the full extent of my power, whatever measures will redound to the welfare, freedom and honor of North Carolina. I sincerely and ardently desire that our people may soon be restored to the enjoyment of all their rights of both person and property, and that they may again be blessed with prosperity, liberty and happiness.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,
A. H. ARRINGTON.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

In the year 1846, the writer embarked in the Drug Business in the city of Philadelphia, and while thus engaged, made several experiments in regard to the most desirable mode of preparing Fluid Extracts. My efforts being successful—the articles being approved and used by the medical faculty—I was desirous of placing them before the public, but hesitated for some time before concluding to resort to newspaper advertising, knowing of the prejudices that existed in the minds of many against using advertised Medicines or Nostrums, but through the advice of friends and those who had used them this objection was overcome.

After 18 years' exertions, commencing in a small way, the popularity of my articles has extended to all parts of the United States, and widely throughout foreign countries—and this in the face of much opposition.—Every means has been resorted to by unprincipled dealers since their merit and success have been known—such as advertising large bottles at less price, censuring all other preparations, and even copying my advertisements (but I am happy to state that out of the many who have resorted to this, none have been successful.

MY OBJECT

in this notice is to make facts known to the public and respectable dealers, believing, after so many years' exertions, that the Druggists will discountenance such proceedings, and that the reputation of my articles may not be damaged by the use of inferior or spurious ones.

Knowing that many may read this article who are unacquainted with me, I append a few remarks from those of my native city, and whose names are known in all parts of the world:

"Being personally acquainted with Mr. H. T. Helmbold, it affords me pleasure in stating I have been most favorably impressed with his energy and integrity, and gratified at his success." WM. WEIGHTMAN,
Firm of Powers & Weightman,
Ninth and Brown Streets, Philadelphia.

[Evening Bulletin, Philadelphia.]

"When on a visit to the city of New York, a few days since, I was induced to call on our old friend and townsman, Mr. H. T. Helmbold, Druggist, 594 Broadway, N. Y. His store is a model—a perfect gem—the handsomest of any kind we have ever had the pleasure of viewing, and so extensive, being 56 feet front, five stories in height, and over 200 feet deep. It indeed affords us much pleasure to know that he has been so successful and it is ample evidence of the merits of his articles—as in our whole business experience we have not known of the success of any articles without merit—advertising merely bringing the name before the people."

[Dental Herald.]

"We do not like to advertise worthless wares, or articles calculated to deceive our readers; and when we see an advertiser like Mr. Helmbold, whom we have known for years, gradually extend his advertising from year to year until he becomes the largest advertiser in the United States, we are satisfied that the statements in regard to his articles must be correct."

The writer reluctantly inserts the above, and would not do so were he not a stranger to many; and concludes by stating the names of his articles, and the diseases for which they have been used by many thousands with complete success.

NEW SKIRT FOR 1865.

The Great Invention of the Age in Hoop Skirts.

J. W. BRADLEY'S NEW PATENT DUPLEX ELLIPTIC, (OR DOUBLE) SPRING SKIRT.

THIS INVENTION CONSISTS OF DUPLEX (OR two) Elliptic Pure Rolled Steel Springs ingeniously braided tightly and firmly together, edge to edge, making the toughest, most flexible, elastic and durable Spring ever used. They seldom break or break, like the single Springs, and consequently preserve their perfect and beautiful shape more than twice as long as any Single Spring Skirt that ever has or can be made.

The wonderful flexibility and great comfort and pleasure to any Lady wearing the Duplex Elliptic Skirt will be experienced particularly in all crowded Assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Arm Chairs, for Promenade and House Dress, as the Skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a much smaller space easily and conveniently as a Silk or Muslin Dress.

A Lady having enjoyed the Pleasure, Comfort and Great Convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt for a single day will never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies they are superior to all other.

The Hoops are covered with 2 ply double twisted thread and will wear twice as long as the single yarn covering which is used on all Single Steel Hoop Skirts. The three bottom rods on every Skirt are also Double Steel, and twice or double covered to prevent the covering from wearing off the rods when dragging down stairs, stone steps, &c., &c., which they are constantly subject to when in use.

All are made of the newest and elegant Corded Tapes, and are the best quality in every part, giving to the wearer the most graceful and perfect shape possible, and are unquestionably the lightest, most desirable, comfortable and economical Skirt ever made.

WEST'S, BRADLEY & CARY, (Late J. I. & J. O. West,) Proprietors of the Invention, and sole manufacturers, 97 Chambers and 79 & 81 Reade Streets, New York.

For sale in all 1st-class stores in this City, and throughout the United States and Canada, Havana de Cuba, Mexico, South America and the West Indies.

PROCLAMATION,
BY WILLIAM W. HOLDEN,
PROVISIONAL GOVERNOR, TO THE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

WHEREAS, A CONVENTION OF THE PEOPLE of North Carolina has been chosen in pursuance of the proclamation of ANDREW JOHNSON, President of the United States, of date May 29th, 1865, under the fourth section of the fourth article of the Constitution of the United States, which guarantees to every State in the Union a republican form of government, for the purpose of enabling the loyal people of said State to organize a State government, whereby justice may be established, domestic tranquility restored, and loyal citizens protected in all their rights of life, liberty and property; and for the purpose also of restoring said State to its Constitutional relations to the Federal Government, by presenting such a republican form of government as will entitle the State to the guarantees of the United States therefor, and its people to protection by the United States against invasion, insurrection and domestic violence: And said Convention having assembled in the City of Raleigh and adopted Ordinances hereinafter set forth, I, WILLIAM W. HOLDEN, Provisional Governor of said State, do hereby proclaim and declare that an election will be held in the various counties of said State on Thursday, the ninth day of November, 1865, as follows:

1st. For the ratification or rejection of "An Ordinance declaring null and void the ordinance of May the 20th, 1861."

2d. For the ratification or rejection of "An Ordinance prohibiting slavery in the State of North Carolina."

3d. For a Governor and members of the General Assembly.

4th. For seven members of the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States.

5th. For Clerks and Sheriffs of the respective counties.

"The elections shall be conducted in accordance with "An Ordinance providing for the election of the members of the General Assembly, to be convened on the fourth Monday of November, eighteen hundred and sixty-five, and for electing Representatives in Congress and Governor of the State," ratified by the Convention the tenth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and hereinafter set forth; said Ordinance having been passed in pursuance of the proclamation of the President of the United States, of date May 29th, 1865, authorizing said Convention to "prescribe the qualifications of electors, and the eligibility of persons to hold office under the constitution and laws of the State." And also, in conformity with the rules and regulations prescribed by the laws of this State concerning said elections, in force previous to the 20th day of May, 1861.

The people of the State are respectfully urged to maintain order among themselves at the election, and to discountenance appeals, the tendency of which may be to produce ill-feeling and alienation towards the Federal Government. The policy of the government has been liberal and generous towards North Carolina, and no pains should be spared to secure a continuance of this policy.

And the officers in the various counties, appointed by the Provisional Governor, are enjoined to exert themselves to preserve the peace among the people on the day of the election; to act with justice and firmness in all matters that may claim their attention; to see that those entitled to vote are protected in their right of suffrage, and that every manifestation, if such manifestation there should be, of hostility to the Federal Government, is promptly rebuked and repressed.

Done at our city of Raleigh, the 18th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and in the year of the Independence of the United States the ninetieth.

W. W. HOLDEN, Provisional Governor.
By the Governor: W. E. RICHARDSON, Private Sec.
